The Swedish Conflict of Laws by Hilding Eek - Martinus Nijhoff The Hague, 1965 XV 304 pages.

Prof. Dr. Yilmaz ALTUĞ

This is English version of the original Swedish edition. The purpose of the book is announced as «to present to lawyers outside Sweden an introduction to Private International Law as applied in Sweden». The purpose is reached. We, who are teaching Private International Law in European Universities are thankful to Professor Eek for his wonderful job. As it is very well known Comparative method is widely used in teaching Private international Law, Swedish way of Conflict of Laws may illustrate and help to solve some difficult problems. We learn that Swedish conflict of Laws is closely connected with the Legal Status of Aliens and Scandinavian countries give us a splendid example of cooperation among themselves to solve conflict of laws problems common to them.
