HACETTEPE UNIVERSITY JOURNAL OF TURKISH STUDIES

Aim and Scope

Hacettepe University Journal of Turkish Studies (HUTAD), is a referred journal published semi annually since 2004, by the Institute of Turkish Studies at Hacettepe University. The Journal covers theoretic and/or practical studies on historical, social, cultural, economic, political aspects related to Turkish Studies as well as contemporary issues in an interdisciplinary approach.

Evaluation

Articles received, upon approval of the Editorial Board are sent to two experts for independent anonymous blind review. They are accepted and published based on the two positive reviews. In case one of the reviews is negative, a third expert assesses the article. The authors acknowledge the criticism of experts and reply accordingly. Reports are kept for a period of two years. Articles whether published or not are not returned to the author. The authors bear the full responsibility for the opinions they express.
