Dear Reader,

The ELT Research Journal draws upon a range of research articles addressing language learning and teaching, methodology and teacher training. Volume 7 Issue, 3 of the ELT Research Journal, has been published, and there are two research articles which address a number of issues in the field of English Language Teaching and a book review in this volume.

The first article presents a needs analysis of an English for Specific Purposes (ESP) context based in Turkey in order to reveal the language needs and practises of the health sector. The second paper aims to unveil the opinions and preferences of pre-service teachers about cultural instruction in foreign language education. In the book review, the author attempts to analyse and introduce a recently published book, GSE in Action: An Anadolian Approach to Outcome-Based Language Teaching edited by Belgin Aydın.

We would like to thank all the researchers who have contributed to the current issue of the journal with their invaluable academic works. We would also like to thank all editors, co-editors and reviewers of the ELT-RJ for their voluntary contribution to the journal by managing the review process.

Best Regards,
