Dear esteemed readers of ACMJ,

Here we are again with a new issue. We are proud to publish the fourth issue of our journal for 2021 with 13 articles. In this issue, there are 12 original articles and 1 case report that we think will attract your attention. All of our articles are in English. In this way, we aim to both get more citations and get the ISI (Web of Science) index, which will open the way to enter indices such as SCI and SCI-E. We know that our journal, which increases its scientific quality with each new issue, is also eagerly awaited by you, our valuable readers. To further increase the scientific quality of our journal, we work hard, including those on the editorial board. We were very pleased with the contribution of our colleagues, who were psychologically burn out during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Wish you a pleasant fall of 2021.

Sincerely yours

Assoc. Prof. Muhammed Kızılgül, MD
Assoc. Editor
