Dear Colleagues,

The Anatolian Current Medical Journal (ACMJ) is pleased to present this issue, which focuses on the topics of peripheral nerve blocks, allergic rhinitis, diabetes, prostate cancer, and adnexal torsion. These are all important medical conditions that affect millions of people worldwide. The articles in this issue provide the latest research on these topics, as well as clinical case studies. We hope that you will find this issue informative and helpful.

We are also pleased to announce that the ACMJ has applied for indexing in PubMed and Web of Science. This means that, if our application is successful, our journal will be included in these two major databases, which will make it more accessible to researchers around the world. We are committed to advancing the frontiers of medical knowledge, and we believe that this issue of the ACMJ makes a significant contribution to this goal. We hope that you will join us in our mission to improve the health of people everywhere.

Call to Action

We encourage you to submit your research articles to the ACMJ. We are always looking for high-quality research that can help to advance the field of medicine. You can find more information about the journal and how to submit your articles on our website.

Thank you for your interest in the ACMJ. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Alparslan KOÇ, MD
