AIMS AND SCOPE

Journal of Art and Iconography is a peer reviewed, open access, online-only journal published by the Atatürk University.

Journal of Art and Iconography is a biannual journal published in both English and Turkish. The journal has issues in March, and September.

Journal of Art and Iconography aims to contribute to the literature by publishing manuscripts at the highest scientific level in the fields of written, oral and contemporary culture and art, which are about national and international art and all disciplines related to art. The journal publishes original articles, reviews, and book reviews that are prepared in accordance with ethical guidelines.

The scope of the journal is all fields of work that are directly or indirectly related to art, especially applied arts, performing arts, plastic arts, traditional arts, art history, art theory, art criticism, and music sciences.

The target audience of the journal includes researchers and specialists who are interested or working in all fields of art.

Disclaimer

The statements or opinions expressed in the manuscripts published in the journal reflect the views of the author(s) and not the views of the editors, editorial board, and/or publisher. The editors, editorial board, and publisher are not responsible for the content of the manuscripts and do not necessarily endorse the views expressed in them. It is the responsibility of the authors to ensure that their work is accurate and well-researched, and the views expressed in their manuscripts are their own. The editors, editorial board, and publisher simply provide a platform for the authors to share their work with the scientific community.

Open Access Statement

Journal of Art and Iconography is an open access publication.

Starting on 2023, all content published in the journal is licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial (CC BY-NC) 4.0 International License which allows third parties to use the content for non-commercial purposes as long as they give credit to the original work. This license allows for the content to be shared and adapted for non-commercial purposes, promoting the dissemination and use of the research published in the journal.

The content published before 2023 was licensed under a traditional copyright, but the archive is still available for free access.

All published content is available online, free of charge at <https://articonography-ataunipress.org/EN>.
