

Contributors

Mustafa Oğuz DEMİRALP

Mustafa Oğuz Demiralp, (January 22, 1952, İstanbul), Turkish diplomat, Ambassador (R). Graduated from the Lycée Saint-Joseph, French High School in İstanbul on July 1971 and the Middle Eastern Technical University on January 1976. He served as Special Advisor to the Minister of Foreign Affairs (1997-2000); Ambassador/Permanent Representative to the World Trade Organization (WTO) (2000-2002), Vice President of the UN Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) Council, Chairman of the WTO Trade and Investment Working Group, Chairman of the WTO Trade and Environment Committee; Ambassador/Permanent Representative to the European Union (EU) (2002-2005); Ambassador/Secretary General for EU Affairs (2005-2009); Ambassador to Bern (2009-2010); Ambassador/Permanent Representative to the UN Geneva Office (2010-2013) and Ambassador to Mexico (2014-2017). Speaks English and French. He is married and has two children.

Contact: ouzdemiralp@yahoo.com

Gözde KILIÇ YAŞIN

Gözde Kılıç Yaşın graduated from Ankara University Faculty of Law in 1998. She completed her Master's degree in General Public Law at the same university with a thesis titled "The Nation-State in the Face of Globalization" and earned her Doctorate with a thesis titled "Genocide from the Perspective of General Public Law: An Examination within the Framework of the Bosnia-Herzegovina vs. Serbia Genocide Case." She works in the fields of international law, public law, geopolitics, geostrategy, war crimes, migration, asylum, the strategy with a focus on the Orthodox world, terrorism, water issues, energy resources, and energy transmission lines. She follows political, commercial, legal, and social developments specifically in the Balkan countries, Cyprus, and the Eastern Mediterranean, and also conducts future planning studies in light of political forecasts. She is a faculty member at Bilecik Şeyh Edebali University.

Contact: gozde.kyasin@bilecik.edu.tr

Soner TAUSCHER

Soner Tauscher completed his undergraduate and graduate studies at Ludwig-Maximilian University of Munich. He received his PhD from Sakarya University Department of Political Science and Public Administration in 2020 with his thesis "Relations between moral-right-politics in the Western and Islamic world of thought: A bioethical discussion." Tauscher is a faculty member at the Department of International Relations and director of the Diaspora Research Center at Sakarya University. His research interests include human rights, international migration, far-right, diaspora, and Islamophobia.

Contact: sonert@sakarya.edu.tr

— Yiğit Cem ESKİCİOĞLU —

Yiğit Cem ESKİCİOĞLU graduated from Istanbul Bilgi University, Department of Political Science in 2015. He completed his MA in International Relations at Sakarya University with his thesis titled “Social Memory and Diasporic Identity in the Turkish Diaspora.” He is pursuing his PhD in International Relations at Sakarya University and working as a research assistant at Sakarya University Diaspora Studies Application and Research Center. His research interests include diaspora studies, Islamophobia, dehumanization, media, and foreign policy analysis.

Contact: yigiteskicioglu@sakarya.edu.tr

— Yekta Kamil NOYAN —

Yekta Kamil Noyan is a Ph.D. student at University of Pretoria Historical and Heritage Studies Department. His academic interests include African diaspora, German colonialism, comparative European and African history. He is a former Fulbright Fellow and holds M.A. degrees from Monterey Institute of International Studies and Loyola University of Chicago respectively. He is a graduate of Ankara University Department of Social Sciences.

Contact: u23967570@tuks.co.za

— Yusuf Halil CALİP —

Yusuf Halil Calip is a master's student in the International Relations program at the Social Sciences Institute of Ankara University. He is conducting his thesis on the unique position Dubrovnik held in the world system during the 16th century through the Ottoman Empire. CALIP has a strong interest in regional studies of the Balkans, Eurasia, and the Far East, as well as Political History and Turkish Foreign Policy. In 2022, he graduated from the International Relations, Department of the Faculty of Political Sciences at Ankara University, and started his master's studies in the same department that same year. He is currently working as an Assistant Specialist at the Istanbul Mineral and Metals Exporters' Association.

Contact: yhcalip@ankara.edu.tr

