

FOREWORD

It is our pleasure to introduce the sixth issue with Digital Object Identifier (DOI) of Eurasian Journal of Science Engineering and Technology (EJSET) established at Niğde Ömer Halisdemir University (NOHU). This issue covers topics ranging from natural sciences to engineering.

In the fifth year of our journal, we would like to thank our friends, engineers, scientists, academicians, and technicians who showed interest in the subject, all the teams and referees as well as editorial board who supported the publication process.

We would like to remind you that our journal's next issue will be published in early July 2025 and you are welcome to submit your original research in the meantime.

We hope to meet you in our next issues.
