IJESP Volume:1, Issue:1, November 2020

Editorial Introduction to the First Issue of the Journal

The International Journal of Educational Studies and Policy (IJESP) focuses on the topics of teacher training, field education, applied studies and research methods within the context of empirical and conceptual studies in educational sciences. The journal was established and started its publication life owing to the long and hard work. Hereby, we would like to express our gratitude to the editorial board and referees who accepted to be in the journal and did not hesitate to help.

IJESP aims to publish qualified scientific studies in educational sciences within the framework of international standards and in the light of scientific principles and to become a stronger journal day by day. It has a policy of publishing studies on a global scale in educational sciences and serving the improvement of educational sciences. Thus, IJESP aims to strengthen its publication quality day by day with its transparent publication and open access policies.

IJESP offers a functional system to authors with transparent evaluation processes. Thus, the infrastructure of the journal has been worked on for a long time to enable writers and readers access easily and this work will continue.

We would like to thank the authors, reviewers and editorial board who contributed to the publication of the first issue of IJESP. Hope to meet in new issues...
