OANNES

Aims and Scope: OANNES is a scientific, open-access, online-only periodical published in accordance with independent, unbiased, and double-blinded peer-review principles. The journal is published twice a year, in March and September. From 2025 onwards, the publication language will be entirely English.

OANNES aims to contribute to the literature by publishing the best articles at the scientific level. The journal publishes original articles by ethical rules. Although the journal covers Ancient History and Archaeology, History of Art, and related fields, it also accepts articles from similar fields deemed appropriate by the editorial board. However, the journal's target audience is researchers and academicians working in Ancient History and related fields.

OANNES is covered in the following abstracting and indexing databases;

-TUBITAK ULAKBIM TR Index

-Erih Plus

To guarantee that all papers published in the journal are maintained and permanently accessible, articles are stored in Dergipark, which serves as a national archival website and permits LOCKSS to collect, preserve, and serve the content.

OANNES editorial and publication processes are carried out according to the following guidelines.

-Council of Science Editors \(CSE\)

-Committee on Publication Ethics \(COPE\)

-European Association of Science Editors \(EASE\)

-Asian Council of Science Editors \(ACSE\)

-National Information Standards Organization \(NISO\)

OANNES conforms with the DOAJ Principles of Transparency and Best Practice in Scholarly Publishing (doaj.org).

Disclaimer: Statements or opinions in the articles reflect the views of the author(s). The editorial board does not accept any responsibility or liability.

Open Access Statement: Oannes is an open-access publication whose publication model is based on the Budapest Access Initiative \(BOAI\) declaration.

All archives are available online, free of charge, at <https://dergipark.org.tr/en/pub/oannes>.
