International Journal of Assessment Tools in Education (IJATE) is a peer-reviewed and academic online journal. The scientific and legal responsibility for manuscripts published in our journal belongs to the authors(s).

International Journal of Assessment Tools in Education

International Journal of Assessment Tools in Education (IJATE) accepts original research on the design, analysis and use of evaluation along with assessment to enhance comprehension of the performance and quality of stakeholders in educational settings. IJATE is pleased to receive discriminating theoretical and empirical manuscripts (quantitative or qualitative) which could direct significant national and international argumentations in educational policy and practice.

IJATE, as an online journal, is hosted by DergiPark [TUBITAK-ULAKBIM (The Scientific and Technological Research Council of Türkiye)]. Under a formal cooperation protocol, Pamukkale University provides institutional and academic support for the journal's scholarly publishing infrastructure and development. This collaboration strengthens IJATE's commitment to internationally recognized principles of scholarly publishing, research integrity, transparency, accessibility, and long-term sustainability.

In IJATE, there are no charges under any procedure for submitting or publishing an article.
