This novel believed as a real event by Bosnia Sufi spiritual leader since the old times comes from a humour. According to humour the last Messenger of Allah, Muhammad's arrival time 40 Bogumil strains religious leader 'did' (grandfather), their pope by the deviation declared religion promotes the Arabia went to the previous Holy Books arrive in the notification of the new religion learned.

Before coming back, they were delivered a sceptre which is the symbol of wisdom and honour to protect the religion. According to the same humour, after this event, this sceptre known as the sceptre of Did was used on the tomb stones of Bugumiller and tombs of some Muslims' as a motive, and was delivered to Sultan Mehmed Han as the symbol of delivering the spiritual and earthly potency to the Ottomans.

When they withdrew from Bosnia, some prominent people of Ottomans delivered this sceptre to their spiritual leader, and the sceptre was kept in the madrasah of Gazi Ćsa Bey in Bosnia Palace. The sceptre was there until the madrasah was destroyed by the communist regime in 1957. After this event, the sceptre was lost. In fact, the humour of the sceptre and its fortune 'esotericism' went in 'holy secret' area.

The novel enlightens the fortune of the sceptre which symbolizes the defence of the country in the historical and political scene despite being exposed to the ongoing attacks.

Bosnia plays like thrilling dark forces which broke the resistance of the belief that they can only now trying to snatch the sceptre but they are faced with the power of the royals to the country. They believe that to protect the Did's Sceptre is a holy mission and the sceptre will be delivered to the Saver who will come when the evil and cruelty rule the world.
