

Editor's Note

Dear Journal of Social Sciences readers,

We are so happy and enthusiastic about presenting the second issue of our newly-introduced journal. It is bliss to see such an interest in our journal which has been started to issue with international peer-reviewers. Moreover, the considerable improvement both in terms of quality and quantity of the articles submitted to our journal for evaluation makes us happier.

Besides the increase in the number of our readers, the fact that the increase in the number of authors showing interest to our Journal compels us to be more qualitative. Furthermore, we believe that the multilingual acceptance of the articles have a positive impact on this increase of interest.

Although we would like to publish more articles in the issues of our journal; we are able to publish maximum eight articles according to the decision of the Editorial Board, due to the facts that we take into consideration of our readers and that we do not want to be alienated from the journal format. Thus, there are many other articles, which we cannot publish in this issue, considering the total page number of journal, even if they are approved by our referees. These articles will be published in following issues.

Dear "Journal of Social Sciences" readers,

Our 2nd issue consists of eight articles and two book reviews, all of which you will read with a great attention. I'd like to thank the esteemed academicians and researchers who sent articles and book reviews, and also the referees who reviewed the articles by spending their valuable time. I would also like to thank to the members of Advisory Board and of Publication Board, and the staff who contributed to our journal. Hoping to meet again in the next issue of the Journal of Social Sciences, I present my deepest respects to all of you.
