NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The peer-reviewed journal "Katre: International Human Studies Journal" published by the Istanbul Foundation for Science and Culture is a journal covering all aspects pertaining to humanity and existence from the perspective of the Risale-i Nur. Articles concerning human life and humanities' search for truth conducted within the scope of various paradigms are discussed. It is a journal with the aim to study areas of religion, society and the humanities. Articles of genuine quality and of an inter-disciplinary character are predominant – also included are book reviews, features on symposiums, conferences, and panel.

All articles are reviewed by two referees (blind-review) and (if required) by a third reviewer when needed. If approved then they are published in the journal. After submission, the authors are required to follow the required corrections and recommendations of the editor and the reviewers. After the papers have passed in accordance with the reviewers' report then a decision will be given as to whether to publish the article.

The responsibility of the articles in terms of scientific criteria, wording, and legal rules is of the contributors.

The journal publishes articles submitted in English or Turkish.

No Copyright Payment will be made to the contributors but 5 copies of the journal will be sent to the authors for free. All the issues of the Katre Journal can be accessed www.iikv.org/katre and https://dergipark.org.tr/katre web sites freely. Articles should be submitted to DergiPark system after registration and login to the system. The writers are required to get a 16-digit ORCID IDENTITY number before submitting their article to Katre Journal.

GENERAL RULES FOR WRITING

The spelling of the words included in the Turkish articles should conform to the latest standards of the Turkish Language Institute.

The font should be in Times New Roman and in 12 point. The upper, lower, left and right margins should be separated at 2.5 cm and with 1.15 line spacing written in plain text.

The article title should be in capital letters and centered in the middle, the sub-heading should be smaller and placed on the left. The authors' name and surname should be written directly under the title of the article, while the academic title and the institution name and email address and ORCID ID NUMBER should be written in a footnote attached to the author's name.

Together with the article an abstract not exceeding 200 words as well as from five to eight key words representing the article should be sent. After the abstract and key words

References used in the article should follow either one of the two citation styles of APA or CHICAGO.

The usage of the Author-Date Method (showing the source in the text) is also acceptable. Authors sending their articles for publication should follow the notes for references at www.iikv.org/katre.