International University Museums Association Platform
Journal of Cultural Heritage

Targets and Scope

International Association of University Museums Platform Cultural Heritage Journal is an international, scientific, open access periodical published in accordance with the principles of independent, impartial and double-blind refereeing. Our journal is the official publication of NIKART and UNIMUZED and is published semiannually. The publication languages of the journal are English and Turkish.

UNIMUSEUM aims to contribute to its field by publishing original texts on museology, especially in university museums and collections, at the highest scientific level in all fields of museology studies. Peer-reviewed articles are studies that ensure the application of the scientific method and impartiality. All components of the publication process in the realization of scientific production; publisher, editors, authors, reviewers and readers are required to abide by the ethical principles. In this context, the publication ethics and open access policy of our journal require that all components of the publication process comply with ethical principles, with the rules determined by the Publication Ethics Committee. The target audience of the journal consists of experts, museologists, museum researchers and professionals working and interested in all disciplines of university museums.

The editorial and publication processes of the journal are shaped in accordance with the guidelines of the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE), European Association of Science Editors (EASE), and National Information Standards Organization (NISO). The journal is in conformity with the Principles of Transparency and Best Practice in Scholarly Publishing (doaj.org/bestpractice). If situations such as manipulating, distorting and using fabricated data are detected, the article will be rejected. All manuscripts must be submitted via the online submission system, which is available at <https://dergipark.org.tr/tr/pub/unimuseum>. The journal guidelines, technical information, and the required forms are available on the journals page.

UNIMUSEUM is a non-profit publication. All expenses of the journal are covered by the NIKART. Statements or opinions expressed in the manuscripts published in the journal reflect the views of the author(s) and not the opinions of the UNIMUSEUM and NIKART editors, editorial board, and/or publisher; the editors and publisher disclaim any responsibility or liability for such materials. All published content is available online, free of charge.
