A Foreword from the Editor

This is the first issue of the seventh volume of the Journal of Politics, Economy and Management (JOPEM). JOPEM, a scholarly journal specializing in economics and administrative sciences, is seeking submissions of recent, excellent papers for potential publication in upcoming editions. The journal is biannually published by the Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences of Hatay Mustafa Kemal University. It employs a double-blind peer-review method that promotes multidisciplinary research. JOPEM is included in the databases and indices of ResearchBib, JournalTOCs, Google Scholar, Ideonline, ASOS index, and Index Copernicus. In order to uphold our rigorous standards, we frequently seek new opportunities for indexing and abstract inclusion.

The journal is focused on the assessment of articles and collections, including theoretical discussions and empirical and practical research articles that have been approved for publication. The journal's objective is to facilitate the spread of scientific information by featuring an extensive range of topics and encouraging current empirical research. We invite papers prepared in either Turkish or English from the following academic disciplines: economics, business, political science, public administration, international relations, finance, industrial relations, information systems and management, econometrics, and other related topics.

We, the Editorial Board, are delighted to publish the exceptional research papers submitted by the authors in the first issue of the seventh volume of the Journal. I express my gratitude to the reviewers, section and language editors, the secretariat responsible for the layout, the JOPEM Advisory Board and the Editorial Board, as well as other individuals who have contributed to the preparation of the articles for publication.

In order to maintain the attention of our readers and promote new ideas, we aim to encourage a higher number of writers submitting papers for upcoming issues of JOPEM. If you have any comments or recommendations, please contact us.
