

UPA STRATEGIC AFFAIRS

UPA Strategic Affairs is an open-access, peer-reviewed online (electronic) international academic journal published twice a year.

UPA Strategic Affairs was established in 2020 by the founders of UPA (Uluslararası Politika Akademisi-International Political Academy), a well-known foreign policy initiative in Turkey initiated in 2012.

UPA Strategic Affairs is solely established for academic purposes and does not collect article processing or submission charges from contributors.

UPA Strategic Affairs' publication languages are Turkish, English, and French.

UPA Strategic Affairs is currently indexed with Türkiye Kaynakçası, ASOS index, DergiPark, DRJI, CiteFactor, Index Copernicus, and EuroPub.

ISSN: 2718-0182

Aims and Scope:

UPA Strategic Affairs encourages all Social Sciences scholars, students, and researchers to send their scientific articles for publication.

UPA Strategic Affairs aims to appeal to a broad scholarly audience by welcoming all Social Science works without a geographic or topic-based limitation.

UPA Strategic Affairs publishes theoretical, methodological, and research-based articles as well as original op-eds and book reviews.

UPA Strategic Affairs' publication languages are Turkish, English, and French.

UPA Strategic Affairs follows academic ethics procedures proposed by the ICMJE (International Committee of Medical Journal Editors) and COPE (Committee on Publication Ethics). These procedures apply to editors, authors, and referees.

All published articles are archived on the UPA website (<http://politikaakademisi.org/archive/>).

Instructions for Authors:

UPA Strategic Affairs accepts articles with the condition of having a maximum 20 % similarity score from Turnitin or the iThenticate program.

The length limit for articles is 20,000 words; inclusive of the Abstract and Footnotes. There is no other specific page limit for articles.

UPA Strategic Affairs encourages authors to use American-style spelling.

Authors should submit their full articles to upastrategicaffairs@gmail.com or ozanormeci@gmail.com.

Articles should comply with the format rules.

Articles are reviewed blindly by two different scholars. Only articles with 2/2 acceptance are published in UPA Strategic Affairs. In case of “minor revision” decisions, the journal’s editors are given a chance to decide. Articles with one approval and one rejection will be sent to a third referee.

Contributors should sign a licensing agreement before the publication of their articles.

Format:

Margins: All margins should be 2.5 cm (1 inch).

Main title: The main title should be Times New Roman in size 12 pt font with all capital letters, centered, and bold format.

Author names: Author names should be added below the main title (align text right) without academic titles with Times New Roman in size 12 pt. Academic titles and affiliated institutions should be mentioned below as the first footnote, along with an e-mail address.

Abstract: Begin your chapter with an Abstract part that summarizes the chapter’s content in 100 to 250 words. The Abstract should be written in Times New Roman in size 12 pt.

Keywords: Maximum 5 Keywords to be written after the Abstract. Keywords should be in Times New Roman in size 12 pt and Italics.

Alignment: Alignment should be justified. The first lines should not start from the inside.

Font: Use Times New Roman font size 12 pt with 1.5-line spacing. Use 0 pt before and 6 pt after each paragraph in writing.

Subheadings: Each article should have Introduction and Conclusion parts. The Introduction and Conclusion parts should not be numbered. The number of subheadings should be at most 20. Subheadings should be numbered as 1., 2., 3.; 1.1., 1.2., 1.3.; 1.1.1., 1.1.2., 1.1.3. etc. Subheadings should be written in size 12 pt with bold letters with only the first letters as capital.

Double-quote: Double-quote (“...”) should be used for emphasized words or quoted sentences. In using double quotes, Italics should be used for the text in the quote.

Italics: Journal, book, and newspaper names should be written in Italics both in the running text and the Bibliography part. Foreign words should also be written in Italics in running text.

Tables and Graphics: Tables and Graphics should be numbered as Table I, Graphic II, etc., with Roman letters, Bold, and Times New Roman in size 12 pt. The Table and Graphic number should be written above. A definition should be made after the Table of Graphic numbers with Times New Roman in size 12 pt and Italics.

Referencing:

Chicago-style footnote system is used for referencing.

Footnotes should be written in Times New Roman in size 10 pt and with “align text left” style.

References should be indicated within the text by a footnote and explained in detail at the bottom of the page.

Footnotes should be placed at the end of the relevant sentence (after the full stop) with superscript Arabic numerals.

Footnotes can be inserted in Microsoft Word by clicking “Insert Footnote” from the References tab.

Each footnote ends with a full stop.

Page referencing should be “p.” for single pages and “pp.” for multiple pages.
