Plagiarism Policy	First Submission Similarity Rates: During the submission process, the author is required to upload a similarity report. The report must be generated using Turnitin, iThenticate, or iThernalNet. Manuscripts with a similarity rate of 20% or less (excluding the bibliography) are accepted, The similarity rate for each cited source should not exceed 3%.  Similarity Rates After Peer Review: For publication, the final version of the manuscript is checked using the iThenticate similarity report. The required similarity rates are reviewed during the pre-admission stage. However, the final similarity rates after refereeing are determined solely based on the iThenticate report.
Fee Policy	The journal does not charge any fees for the submission or publication of articles. Both authors and readers can access the journal free of charge.
Withdrawal Policy	1. Manuscripts can be withdrawn by the author before entering the peer review process. 2. Once the manuscript enters peer review, it generally cannot be withdrawn. After the review process, the author may request withdrawal, and if insisted, the article will be returned. 3. Once the manuscript is accepted, it cannot be withdrawn. 4. In certain cases, such as ethical violations or plagiarism, journals may allow withdrawal, but this is subject to the journal's specific policies.
Peer Review	Double Blind Peer Review (3 Reviewers per Article)

Correction and Retraction Policy	Corrections: Articles published in JENAS can be corrected if necessary. Corrections are made in cases where significant errors occur during the publication process that result in a serious infringement of the rights of the author(s). Such corrections will be published in the next issue, in accordance with the guidelines of DergiPark and TR Index. Retraction: An article can only be retracted by a court order. If JENAS implements a fee structure in the future, no refunds will be issued. All other fee-related matters will be governed by the journal's policies.
