

The Gazi Journal of Economics and Business Peer Review Form

Name surname and title of the referee

Professional email address of the referee who reviewed the paper

Date

1. The title and the topic of the paper is scholarly.
2. The academic wording the clarity of explanation the organization of the paper.
3. The appropriateness of the language and the grammatical correctness (Standard of English if it is written in English).
4. In terms of the content of the abstract and the key words.
5. In terms of the English of the abstract and the keywords.
6. How the research question and the significance the purpose and the assumptions of the the research are presented.
7. In terms of the literature review and the reference to previous studies.
8. The research method and the analysis
9. The findings support the assumptions and the results
10. The findings support the research purpose and the evaluations
11. The novelty of the paper
12. The contribution to the related literature
13. The adequacy and the appropriateness of the citations and the references
14. Have you written any comment or made any correction on the paper?

Note to Author:

Note to Editor:

Recommendation:

Major Revision

Minor Revision

Reject

Accept