This signed statement must be returned to SAUJS prior to the scheduled publication of the Journal in which the Paper will be published. The intent of this Agreement is to protect the interests of both SAUJS and authors/employers and to specify reasonable rights for both parties related to publication and reuse of the material.

The undersigned hereby assign(s) to SAUJS copyright ownership in the above Paper, effective if and when the Paper is accepted for publication by SAUJS and to the extent transferable under applicable national law. This assignment gives SAUJS the right to register copyright to the Paper in its name as claimant and to publish the Paper in any print or electronic medium.

Authors, or their employers in the case of works made for hire, retain the following rights:

1. All proprietary rights other than copyright, including patent rights.
2. The right to make and distribute copies of the Paper for internal purposes.
3. The right to use the material for lecture or classroom purposes.
4. The right to prepare derivative publications based on the Paper, including books or book chapters, journal papers, and magazine articles, provided that publication of a derivative work occurs subsequent to the official date of publication by SAUJS.
5. The right to post an author-prepared version or an official version (preferred version) of the published paper on an internal or external server controlled exclusively by the author/employer, provided that (a) such posting is noncommercial in nature and the paper is made available to users without charge; (b) a copyright notice and full citation appear with the paper, and (c) a link to SAUJS's official online version of the abstract is provided using the DOI (Document Object Identifier) link.
