The contributor(s), or if applicable, the contributor's employer, retain(s) all proprietary rights in addition to copyright and patent rights. I/We indemnify the Anatolian Journal of Health Research and the editors of the journal, and hold them harmless from any loss, expense, or damage resulting from a claim or suit by a third party for copyright infringement, or any suit arising from a breach of the above warranties as a result of the publication of my/our article. I/We also warrant that the article contains no libelous or unlawful statements, and does not contain material or instructions that might cause harm or injury.

This Copyright Agreement Form must be signed/ratified by all authors. Separate copies of the form (completed in full) may be submitted by authors located at different institutions; however, all signatures must be original and authenticated.

Authorship

The Anatolian Journal of Health Research adheres to the ICMJE recommendations on authorship, which include the following 4 criteria:

1. Substantial contributions to the conception or design of the work; or the acquisition, analysis, or interpretation of data for the work;
2. Drafting the work or revising it critically for important intellectual content;
3. Final approval of the version to be published;
4. Agreement to be accountable for all aspects of the work, ensuring that questions related to the accuracy or integrity of any part of the work are appropriately investigated and resolved.

Each author must meet the conditions specified in the first three criteria. Those who do not meet the required contributions and conditions should be mentioned in the "Acknowledgement" section of the article.

The undersigned author(s) certify that they qualify for authorship according to the terms and conditions outlined above.
