

Article Name:
Corresponding Author:
Date:
Signature:
No	Manuscript Check List	Yes	No
1	According to the rules of journal Instructions to Authors, which you can access at https://veterinarysciences-ataunipress.org/en/instructions-to-authors-106 , Research articles should not exceed 4000 words, Review articles should not exceed 5000 words and Case reports should not exceed 1200 words. Have resource and table limitations been taken into account?
2	Is the descriptive information (thesis, project, etc.) about the manuscript, if any, given by marking with * as a superscript at the end of the article title with font italic?
3	Commercial names of the materials and products mentioned in the manuscript, if any, should not be used
4	Title page must be loaded when submitting articles. Does the Title page of the manuscript consist of the title, author names and addresses, e-mail addresses of the authors, contact information of the corresponding author and descriptive information regarding the article, if any?
5	Does the second page of the manuscript contain abstract and keywords?
6	For research articles , does the abstract briefly contain the purpose, material, method, findings and conclusions?
7	For research articles , is the abstract word count maximum 250 words?
8	For case reports , does the abstract briefly contain the purpose, case information and conclusions?
9	For case reports , is the abstract word count maximum 200 words?
10	For reviews , does the abstract consist of the information regarding the subject of the review and the purpose and conclusion of the review?
11	For reviews , is the abstract word count maximum 200 words?
12	Are the keywords at least 3 and at most 5?
13	For Research Articles Is the manuscript completed as in "INTRODUCTION", "MATERIAL AND METHODS", "RESULTS", "DISCUSSION", "Conflict of interest" and "REFERENCES" sections, starting from the third page?
14	For Case Reports Is it completed as in "INTRODUCTION", "CASE PRESENTATION" (material, method and findings should be mentioned under the title of case study), "DISCUSSION", "Conflict of interest" and "REFERENCES" starting from the third page?
15	For Reviews Is the review completed as in "INTRODUCTION", "sub-headings determined by the author(s)", "CONCLUSION", "Conflict of interest" and "REFERENCES" starting from the third page?
16	If there are statistical analyses in the manuscript, are they given under the "Statistical Analysis" title at the end of the "MATERIAL AND METHODS" section?

17	Are the expansions of the abbreviations, if any, given when seen in the first place on the text and then used as only abbreviations in the following?
18	Are International Standard units (SI-System) used in the manuscript for units and measurements, if any?
19	In the article, if any, genus and species names in Latin should be indicated with italic font?
20	Are punctuations used for the numeric and statistic data, if any, in the article?
21	Are the figures, graphs, photographs and pictures, if any in the article, indicated as Figure in the titles and text?
22	In the text, are figures and tables, if any, numbered according to their order in the text and written in abbreviated form in the text? (e.g; Figure 1, Table 1).
23	Are any abbreviations that are used in the figures and tables explained under the table and figure?
24	In research articles and case reports, are the conclusions that have been obtained/reached regarding the manuscript indicated with a single paragraph starting with the expression of “as a result...” at the end of DISCUSSION section?
25	In the reviews, is the conclusion obtained/reached given under the title of “CONCLUSION” right before the resources section of the text?
26	Is “Conflict of interest” added?
27	Have you written your reference list and citations in AMA style?
28	Is the reference presentation given in numeric order at the REFERENCES section?
29	Is the number of reference used in the manuscript in accordance with the rule “cannot be less than 35 for research article, less than 15 for case reports, and more than 50 for all article types.”?
30	Regardless of the type of article (original research article, case report, review), does at least one-fifth of the references used (based on the year the article was submitted) belong to the last 3 years?
31	Are the references used written according to the journal's writing rules in the "REFERENCES" section of the manuscript?
32	Ethics committee approval for the manuscript, number of the approving institution and approval number stated in the “MATERIAL AND METHODS” section of the manuscript?
33	For case reports: was the informed consent form obtained from the animal owner?
34	Does the corresponding author and first name author have at least a PhD degree?
35	If the manuscript sent is a review, has the corresponding author sent at least 3 (Three) publications about the subject of the review to the journal’s editorial office?
36	Has the Copyright Declaration Form been sent to the journal editor with the article?		