

Similarity Report and Authorship Contributions

The similarity report of the article should be made using programs such as "Turnitin or iThenticate" and the article file to be taken from there should be uploaded to the system.