

The Open Access Policy

The open access policy is the presentation of publications online and free of charge by the publisher -with some restrictions if necessary-, available to all parties. The unrestricted availability of studies/research is important for the researcher(s), researchers/readers, and those who support the research financially. In this context, The Journal of İctimaiyat signed the Budapest Open Access Declaration.

<https://www.budapestopenaccessinitiative.org/read/turkish-translation/>

<https://www.budapestopenaccessinitiative.org/sign/signatures/>

The Journal of İctimaiyat is published as open access under the license of <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/4.0/deed.en>. The Journal of İctimaiyat ensures that copyright and user rights are clear with its licensing policy. The CC BY-NC 4.0 license permits the study to be shared, copied, reproduced in any size and format other than for commercial use, and to be adapted, including re-editing, transforming, and constructing upon the original study, with proper reference to the original study.

OAI: <https://dergipark.org.tr/api/public/oai/ictimaiyat/>

The following can be freely done:

The study may be copied and redistributed in any condition or format.

Reconstruction can be done on the study.

The study cannot be used for commercial purposes.

When benefiting from or re-adapting the study, it should be given references in accordance with scientific rules. A link to the license should be provided and informed if any changes have been made. You can make these appropriate, but this does not show that the licensee approves of you and your use.

No restrictions may be imposed on the free use provided by the license.

Open Citation Standard

İçtimaiyat journal complies with I4OC standards for open citations, which require citations to be structured, separable, and open.